SOCIETY DANCES AT THE OLD BREVOORT

small Subscription Affair Preceded by Several Dinners.

Served in Louis XVI. Room at the St. Regis and a Dance Follows.

A subscription dance organized by Mrs. Gustavus Kirby, Mrs. S. Oakley Vander Poel, Jr., and the Misses Marguret French, Therese Ingersoil, and Marjorie Lamond was given last night at the Hotel Bre-

The guests came from dinners given The guests came from dance at their by the organizers of the dance at their spenetive houses. It was a small party and there was general dancing until after Miss J. Mohle, whose record was 150 idnight when a seated supper was

Among those at the dance were Mr. and Mrs. S. Harold Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Mahan, Mr. and 67rs. Louis du Pont irving. Mr. and Mrs. Hobart D. Betts. and Mrs Ernest Stauffen, Jr., Mr. Mrs Oscar E. Stevens, the Misses s Claffin, Caramai Carroll, Helen ins, Mildred and Helen Ellbeck, and Duane: Lauren Carroll, Bentley Marcel Gourd, Howard Peck and dinner last night followed by dancing at the Hotel St. Regis. The dinner was served in the Louis NVL room at one table, which was decorated with pink roses and sweet Among the guests were Miss Lota Robinson. Miss Elsie De Wolfe, Miss Diane del Monte, Miss Juliet Breitung, Nils Flor-

Edward N. Breitung gave a small

del Monte, Miss Julie Bretting, Mis Pior-man, Stephen Van Renssetaer, Sidney Dil-lon Ripley and Count Montyelas. After the dinner there was dancing in the ballroom, for which others came. Mrs. George T. Bliss gave a dinner last night at the St. Regis for her daughter, Miss Susan Bliss.

At the house of Mrs. Albert Young, 19 At the house of Mrs. Albert Young, 18 Last Fifty-fourth street, vesterday after noen was given an entertainment under the auspices of the Junior Auxiliary of the New York Diet Kitchen Association. On a stage erected in the drawing room there the Misses Betty Gilbert, Edna Hoyt, Dixie Wilson. Kathryn Slayluck, Grace Sussoner, Hospital Control of Misses, Pergy Stout, Ethel Schmelzel, Mary Appleton, Virginia Sierry, Pergy Thomas, Hortense Koller, Polly McCall, Lincille Polonae, Prances Rowe, Logis Wilson, Cyntha Bigelow, Knathryn Bachel Marie Louise Frances, Louz, and Lorraine Manylle, Hospital Luzz, and Lorraine Manylle, Hospital Rowell, Jr. Prances and after the entertainment there are letter independent, she would instruct her was general disaction, tea and light registrations and after the entertainment there are already as the sister-in-law was general disaction, tea and light registrations for the size of the size of the size of the order of (sabella ta Catolica was conferred on President Catolica was conferred on President and School as a stormy annual motion active to the class of the order of (sabella ta Catolica was conferred on President and School as a stormy annual motion active to the class of the order of (sabella ta Catolica was conferred on President Catolica was conferred on President and School as a stormy annual motion active to the class of the order of (sabella ta Catolica was conferred on President Catolica was conferred on President Mechal Astrophysical Catolica was conferred on President Mechal Astro

Franklin Richardson, who will marry Miss Caro Quartley Brown, daughter of burg, Germany. The rest of wife, Grace F. Bendit of and Mrs. Stephen H. Brown, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, 154 West Seventieth street, gave his farewell bachelor dinner last night at or chardson, Sinclair Richardson, Stepher H. Brown, Edmund S. Twining, Jr. r.sh H. Milliken, Ellis Adams, C. Page Ely. Payson McL. Merrill. Frederic C. Inman, E. Drexel Godfrey, Noel I

MRS. STOTESBURY GIVES $50,000. Aids the Y. W. C. A. to Raise a Fun of $750,000.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2 .- The campaign for raising $750,000 for the Young Women's Christian Association got a new supretus to-day when Mrs. E. T. Stomer, wife of the banker, offered $50,000 become available when the fund has get Mrs. Stotesbury's $50,000 the rkers must obtain pledges within a ek for $175,000, as $275,000 has been

Notes of the Social World.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Terry, Jr., of 278 Madison avenue have annou mgagement of their daughter, Miss to the Rev. Theodore Fisk date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Rosamond Dixey, daughter of Mr. known here, will be married to Gor-Brooks of Boston on June 7 at inglewood, the country place of Mr. and in Lenox, Mass. Miss Doro-daughter of Eben D. Jordan he one of the bridesmaids.

berty F. Loree, who will marry Baress Atx Moncheur in Baltimore on will give his farewell bachelor is a daughter of Baron Moncheur, the Belgian Minister at Wash now the Ambassador from um to Turkey.

ur Williams, who will marry Mis Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden, on Wednesday in Grace h. will give his farewell bachelor to-night at the Harvard Club. Mrs. E. N. Breitung and Miss Breitung will go to Europe about luring the summer and will spend Versailles.

and Mrs. Ralph Strassburger are Bitz-Carlton. and Mrs. Theodore Cramp and Mr. Henry P. Vaux, who have been Regis, have returned to Phila and Mrs. Daniel Guggenheim have their country place at Elberor and Mrs. John B. Stanchfield have taken an apartment at the Vanderbilt. u and Mrs. Charles D. Freeman, who been passing the winter at the han, have gone to their country place

N L for the summer wedding of Miss Kathleen Whitaker. Warren Hildreth will be celebrated Thomas's Church on May 22. A FIELD DAY AT BARNARD.

Miss Pero Leads in Hurdling, 75 Yard Dash and High Jump.

Barnard College girls held their annual field day yesterday. There were many events and the excitement ran high as the classes struggled for ath-letic championship. The juniors finally came out highest, the number of points won by them being 61 to the sophomores' 46, while the seniors were third with 37 points. The freshmen made 10.

Hurdling for speed was won by Miss S. Pero, who has been noted for her MRS. BREITUNG'S DINNER graceful hurdling at every field day since her freshman year. She also wor the high jump, although she fell short of the record she made last year. Her high jump this year was 4 feet 4 inches.

The shot put was won by Miss E. Hadsell, '14, who threw the twelve pound shot 28 feet 3 inches. Those winning second and third places were Miss M. Hillas, '15, making 27 feet 6 inches and Miss F. Markwell, 26 feet 7 inches Miss Hillas, '15, was the winner of the discus throw her distance being 68 feet, while Miss E. Mayer made 67 feet 7 inches and Miss Hadsell 67 feet feet.

ART SALE RECORD IS $2,350.

No Spirited Bidding for Old Masters in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 2.—Fine paintings of many artistic schools were sold to-day at the Philadelphia Art Gallery's Gardner, Marcel Gourd, Howard Peck and Robert Howler.

The second of the subscription dances organized by Miss Doane was given yesterday afternoon in the Waldorf apartinent of the Waldorf-Astoria and there was a full attendance.

The patronesses of these dances are Mrs. E. Parsons Morgan, Mrs. Charles H. Coster, Mrs. Richard Stevens, Mrs. L. Cass Ledyard, Mrs. Louis B. McCagg and Mrs. Whitney Warren.

Mrs. Edward N. Breitung gave a small Are Philadelphia Art Gallery's closing auction sale iclosing auction sale; "The Two Sisters," by Diaz de la Pena, broke the price record for this sale, starting at $1,000 and reaching $2.350.

Two paintings attributed to Canaletto sold for $1,350 and $325 respectively. Old Pieter Moreelses's "Princess of Nassau," was knocked down for $275. An eighteenth century Clara Flary portrait, "Sir Joshua Reynolds," cost only $250. A "Portrait of Miss Ameden" went for $175.

A Cuyp study of a Dutch youth, son of the painter, Troost, went for $450.

A Jules Dupre's "Landscape and Cattle" was run up to $700. An "Old John Crome" was bid up to $1,450.

Carleton Wiggins, sole American in the list, had one painting. "Cattle to the list, had one painting, "Cattle in the Meadows," which was knocked down for PAINTINGS SELL FOR $25,000.

Mrs. Paul Morton's Pictures and Others Are Auctioned.

Twenty-five thousand and forty-five dol a stage erected iff the drawing room there were fancy dances, songs and pantomines and a playlet by Eleanor Colby entitled the afternoon brought in $1,267.

'A Vision of Youthe' The portrait of Elizabeth Grantham by Sir Thomas Lawrence was bought by P. Maitland for $1,200. Aimee Perret's Vesper Hour brought $900. James B. Silo, Beinze and Mary Lawis Landstreet, all Jr., acting as agent, bought Thomas Gainstreet, all Jr., acting as agent, and acting a second acting a second acting a weenles. There were also seen from borough's Countess of Sallsbury for Mother Goose' and other stories of child-ood. Some of the children taking part were bought by L. G. King for $2,900.

reated a trust fund of $37,500 for his ister. Pauline Hudenheimer of Nurem-The rest goes to wife, Grace F. Bendit of 166 West Seventy-second street, and when she dies it goes to his four brothers and sisters 166 West

SOCIETY IN WASHINGTON.

Mrs. Wilson and Daughters See "Hansel and Gretel."

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Mrs. Wilson with the Misses Wilson and Miss Helen Woodow Bones, occupied the Presidential box t the Belasco Theatre this afternoon a he presentation of "Hansel and Gretel y the Chicago Opera Company. Mrs. Wilson received several callers at noon to-day in the Red Room. With Miss Eleanor Wilson and Miss Bones she at ended the charity ball this evening at the New Willard for the benefit of the children food sufferers.

the first of a series of three garden parties which she will give at the White House this month. Friday May 9, has been selected month. Friday. May 9. has been selected and the hours are from 5 to 7 o'clock. Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice-President, was the guest of honor at luncheon which Mrs. D. A. Blodgett gave to-day at her home in Sixteenth street. Countess de reretti de la Rocca left Washington to-day to be the guest of Mrs. Oscar T. Crossby at Warrenton, Va., who is entertaining a house party.

in New York To-day.

Mozart Society, white and gold break Zeta eBta Tau fraternoty, supper, Hotel

New York Botanical Garden, lecture by Dr. F. J. Seaver on "The Scenery and Flora of Colorado," museum building, Bronx Park, 4 P. M. Woman suffrage parade, starts at Wash-ington Square, 2:30 P. M.

Real Estates Show, new Grand Central Tenants Union of New York, dinner, Ger maine restaurant, Twenty-seventh stree and Broadway, 6 P. M.

Japanese Cherry Trees in Bloom. Several varieties of Japanese cherry trees are in bloom on the east of the Bronx River just north of the Long Bridge in the New York Botanical Garden, Bronx Park. There are 100 trees in all. The flowers vary from pale rose to deep rose, pure white or greenish white.

W. E. Carter Rents Newport Cottage. De Blois & Eldridge have rented Pinard cottage No. 3 in Narragansett avenue, Newport, to William E. Carter of Phila-

boro, Maine, last summer

Plays and Players "Oh! Oh! Delphine" will stop to-night at the New Amsterdam Theatre after 259 lelphia for the coming season. Mr. and Mrs. Carter occupied a cottage at Isles-reopen early in August.

Henry W Savage, who is now in Europe, has taken the American rights to "Das Furstenkind," which he will produce here next season under the title of "The King of the Mountains." The score is by Franz Lehar, the book by Victor Leon.

Temperature in Atlantic City. ATLANTIC, CITT, May 2.—The tempera-ture was 79 here to-day at noon.

The Powers: "We Don't Understand This."

WOMEN FIGHT OVER BALLOTS. SPANISH ORDER FOR WILLIAMS.

tors after Miss Edith Reiffert, one of las year's unsuccessful candidates, had tried to have it passed.

federation refused to protest The against the Board of Education's attempt to force Mrs. Edgell to resign. Mrs. Frank Cronise said that any mother realized that six-months-old baby should not be left to the care of others. The meeting asked that three out of the five school district superintendents soon to be appointed be women, but declined to recommend Miss Grace C. Strachan for one of the jobs.

women, but declined to recommend Miss Grace C. Strachan for one of the jobs. ARMY RELIEF PICKS OFFICERS. Society Meets at the Home of Mrs. Deniel S. Lamont. Gen. William Ames Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Martin Beck Lagt and Mrs. P. G. Bird Lorraine Joseph Merkle William Sterr Miller Lorraine Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Hoden Page, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. E. Torres George H. Perklins Duvcen Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle Joseph Merkle William Ames Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merkle Joseph Me annual meeting of the Army Relief Society was held at the residence of Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont, 2 West Fifty-third street, on Wednesday afternoon. Reports of the various branches of the society ere read and an address was made by

he Rev. Dr. Joseph Duryee.
Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont president, Mrs. Emer-son Liseum and Mrs. Stephen Mills vice-presidents, Mrs. Robert Mills, Mrs. Henry . Stimson and Col. J. Van Vechter Olcott honorary vice-presidents: Mrs. Thomas Barry corresponding secretary, Mrs. Elmer O. Wald recording sceretary, Cornelius Agnew treasurer and Mrs. Rich.

ard Colt assistant treasurer.

The managers elected were Mrs. James Battle Burbank, Mrs. Charles F. Roe, Mrs. Wright P. Edgerten, Mrs. Richard Aldrich, Mrs. Samuel Reber and Mrs. John H. Gibbon. The trustees reelected vere Levi P. Morton, Cornelius Vanderbilt

The annual garden party for the benefit of the New York branch of the society vill be held on Governors Island on the afternoon of May 22.

DUNN LIBRARY TOTALS $5.275. Kelmscott Chaucer at $260 Best

Price of Last Day's Sale.

The best price of the last day's sale of the library of Charles H. Dunn, at Anderson's, was $260 paid by J. F. Drake dent Lincoln, for Plymouth, Cherbourg Kelmscott press imprint Chaucer, done in Hammersmith in 1896.
It contained wood cut titles and illustrations after Burne-Jones and initials by

Mrs. William Morton
Brower
Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Ree
Dr. Archibald Worth
W. J. Worden
Capt. W. T. Meisner Mr. Drake also got a William Morris. presentation copy of Longfellow's Ballads. liner Canada:

William Hirsch gave $200 for Halle Hadley Mrs. Halsey M. Bar-Dr. William Hirsch gave $200 for Ireland's Life of Napoleon, with colored plates by George Cruikshank, and F. W. Norris paid $120 for Westmacott's satire.

"The English Spy." The total for the session amounted to $3,043, making $5,275 for Jamalca and Colon: in all for the Dunn library.

Will Exploit the South.

For the purpose of attracting farmers and business men to .the known the agricultural and industrial resources of that region, the South Pub-licity Bureau has been established in this city with offices at 74 Cortlandt street. John H. Leonard is director of the Miss Florence Bierwirth Engaged. Dr. and Mrs. Julius C. Bierwirth anounce the engagement of their daughter nounce the engagement of their daugner Florence Helen Bierwirth, granddaughter of the late Joseph C. Hutchison, M. D., and John J. Cocks, to Clarence Franklin Pritchard of New York and New Rochelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pritchard.

Decide Not to Keep Votes or Count Head of Museum of Safety Honored Halevy's "La Juive" at the Thalia

THE SEAGOERS.

Some Who Are Sailing To-day for Europe and the Indies.

The first of the May fleet of transatianliners will sail to-day with all cabins The White Star giantess Olym carries 560 saloon passengers, includ-

Mrs. Henry Hoyt Charles Hitchcock Sherrill Lee Shubert

iton Gibbs

airbanks is Alice Nielsen Julia Neilsen and Mrs. Irving

By the Red Star liner Lapland, for

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mrs. Kernochan Dr. and Mrs. Nelson G Russell Mrs. Daniel Schuyler Leon Van Antwerpen Baroness de Gabe Armington Ir. and Mrs. Paul Durand For London, by the Atlantic Transport

Havre:

R. Snowden Mrs. Franklin Johnston Or. J. Herbert Lawson L. C. F. Barciay Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Mather Iske William Tod Helmuth Mrs. R. Snowden by the Anchor liner

Cameronia: Kenneth Allen
Rear Admiral and Mrs.
John Kennedy Barton
Mr. and Mrs. J. Hampden. Chembershees
den. Chembershees
A. Russell Watson By the French liner Rochambeau, for

Dr. Kate Walter Barrett
Mr. and Mrs. A. H.
Chatfee
Dr. Charles Gilbert
Carey
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence stetson K. Wheelock By the Hamburg-American liner Pres

For the Mediterranean, by the Fabr

By the United Fruit steamship Sixaola

For Porto Rico, by the New York and orto Rico liner Mrs. J. B. Squires Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I Mayers E. C. Bothwell William H. Butler . J. Zimmerman By the Cunarder Carmania, for Liver

Samuel Appleton Mrs. Ida H. Harper Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon King Miss Kate S. Loomis By the Austro-American liner Marth Washington, for the Azores, the Mediter ranean and the Adriatic: Rev. and Mrs. E. S.

Goodrich
C. F. Ranney
Dr. and Mrs. Marion
Ulrich
Rev. J. D. Waters
Rev. Elson I. Rexford

OPERA IN THE BOWERY.

Receives Much Applause.

Previous to that the opera had been am going fishing—yes, fishing in the vociferated at the Casino in 1904 by a Alps."

Oscar Hammerstein said last night offered once or twice at the same Thalia Theatre for the glory of Mr. Perotti or Mr. Guile. Its real restoration to the ac-quaintance of New Yorkers was at the Metropolitan in 1890, with Niemann as Mr. Hammerstein's grand opera in Eleazur, Alvary as Leopold, Lehmann as English would be welcomed in Philadel-Rachel and Fischer as the Cardinal. Only phia in the fall. Mr. Hammerstein said such artists as these can give an adequate interpretation of this lyric drama.

ning's performance, and that too despite the fact that the work was new to the could have it. company. All the principals had learned their roles for this production. They were and tons of s Enrica Clay Dillon as Rachel, Anita Bon-dio as Eudozia, Giuseppe Mauro as Elea-zur, William Giuliani as Leopold, Pietro Miss Dillon appeared to be afraid to indulge in temperament and gave her at-tention chiefly to cues. But she has a good voice and doubtless she will sing the role much better next time. Mr. Mauro has a worn voice and a bad style, but he put no little dramatic warmth into his interpretation. Mr. Biasi sang with digwith sonority and with some finish Mr. Zuro conducted. The chorus and bal-let were not large, but they were thorughly in earnest

NAUTICAL SCHOOL OFF TO SEA.

Last Cruise of the Newport Under

City Auspices Begins To-day. With all outdoors calling to him the ordinary schoolboy who has still to face several weeks of shut in "grind" before the long vacation probably will envy the not at all ordinary schoolboys who answer the bell that summons them this morning to work in the New York Nautical

In the first place the belt will be a ship's bell sounding 11 o'clock, or, with Sec-retary Daniels's permission, six bells. there will be a stirring accompaniment of a bos'n's whistle piping the lads over the side of the schoolship Newport which begins to-day the annual cruise with sixty cadets, the making of future merchant marine officers, on board. The Newport will go first to Glen Cove nuda and thence north to Halifax. The cruise will last until close to October 1. This will be the last cruise under the Board of Education. After October 1 the

TO TAKE STEPFATHER'S NAME. Mother Got Promise That Girl Should

Be J. H. Benedict's Heir. Miss Stella Marletta Zifferer of 875

Park avenue got permission yesterday from Supreme Court Justice Lehman to take the name of her stepfather, James II. Benedict, on the ground that her tepfather has promised to make her the heir of a large estate if she changes name to Benedict.

name to Benedict.

Miss Zifferer, who signed her petition before the United States Consul at Geneva, Switzerland, on April 2, said that she was the daughter of Franz Joseph Zifferer of San Francisco, who died in 1897, and that her mother had re-fused to marry James H. Benedict unless would adopt her daughter as his own Mr. Benedic signed an agreement to do this Foreign Missionaries Meet. Chicago, May 2.—Seventy-five missionaries assembled here to-day to tell of their work in China and Alaska.

CAMPANINI IS NOW

He Gets Release for the Year From His Covent Garden

CHICAGO, May 2 .- Announcement was made to-day that arrangements have been completed whereby Cleofonte Cam-panini will give his undivided attention to the affairs of the Chicago Grand Manager Higgins granted a release for aunt, Mrs. Agnes Anderson. E. T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia tophia next winter. The members of the executive committee have arranged to be in New York on Monday to consider plans for the year. On Thursday they will go to Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, May 2 .- Edward T. Philadelphia, May 2—Edward T. Stotesbury said to-night that he had asked Harold F. McCormick to come his wife, Maria, and two daughters, to this city for a conference on the Margaret and Mary, survive. plans for the opera season Mr. Stotesbury would not say what his ideas were, except that he was satisfied there would be opera here next year. The banker has been engaged most of the week planning for the coming year. While he has not definitely secured assurances of any assistance from Chicago he is confident that he will be successful in securing an alignment of the Chicago forces with a new organi-

One thing is assured and that is that here will be no conference with Mr. Dippel here regarding these plans. The former director of the Chicago company s here for one performance to-morrow and that is the reason for his visit at ready to tell his plans. He said yesterday at the Hotel Knickerbocker that the would have some announcement to suddenly here to-day. His wife surhe would have some announcement to make next week. He is looking forward to his first vacation in five years.

He said: I will have nothing to do with the Century Theatre. I may produce light operas next year."

He said that his differences with the Zuro Cleofonte Campanini, who has become head of the Chicago company since Mr. Dippel's resignation, were "only those usual in theatrical circles." He

Mr. Dipper's work with the Chicago company ends to-night, but he will take part in meetings in this city next week which will partly determine the work of that company next season. Asked where his summar would be made to produce the play. where his summer would be spent the ex-director smiled his best. "I wil remain in New York until the middle of May," he said. "And then I BROWER — At Peckskill, N. Y., May 2, 1213, will sail for Europe. This summer I Ellen Curry, wife of Prof. Casper G.

Oscar Hammerstein said last night phia in the fall. Mr. Hammerstein said that he had not accepted the offer of There were, however, merits in last eve- the use of the Academy of Music, but if and that too despite Philadelphia wanted his company it

"My mind is full of loads of bricks They were and tons of steel just now," Mr. Hammerstein said. "I will start to build my new opera house at Fifty-first street de Blast as the Cordinal and Natale Cervi and Lexington avenue on Monday morning. I will open on November 10. Then if I am wanted at the Philadelphia Academy of Music with my grand opera in English I will be ready to go. The Philadelphia Grand Opera House built by Mr. Hammerstein and now known as the Metropolitan Opera House has been leased to Marcus Loew. The lease provides that the opera house may be used for grand opera on Tuesday nights, subject to the demands of Mr. Stotesbury.

"ROMANCE" ACTRESS ENGAGED.

Son of de Forest Brush, the Artist to Marry Louise Seymour.

Mrs. Lewis Seymour, mother of Louise Seymour, who acts one of the young girls in "Romance" at the Maxine Elliott The re, has announced the engagement her daughter to Jerome Brush, son of the well known American artist George de Forest Brush. Young Mr. Brush also career by painting an important tive work. No date has been fixed for the wedding.

Louise Seymour began her career three ears ago as one of the children in "The Blue Bird," at the New Theatre throp Ames had faith in her tal when he opened the Little Theatre Miss eymour was engaged for the part of the aughter in "The Pigeon." She was se-Then she will sail to Ber- lected by Mr. Ames for "Romance."

JOHN R. READ.

Former U. S. Attorney and Collector of Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—John R. Read years old, ex-United States Distric

Attorney and also ex-Collector of the Port here, died in the University Hospital today of injuries from being struck trolley car yesterday. Mr. Read was a member of the law firm of Read, Gill & Linn. He attended all Democratic State conventions and was a delegate to every national convention fron In the St. Louis convention of 1876 Mr Read was one of the leading supporters of Samuel J. Tilden, and in 1884 he sup-ported Cleveland. Through his influence the Pennsylvania delegation in 1892 threv s support to Cleveland. Mr. Read in 1867 married Miss Powell of Brooklyn, who survives him James Hicks Merchant.

James Hicks Merchant, who retired from the dry goods business in this city twenty years ago, died on Thursday at his home, 203 West 102d street. Mr. Merchant was a great-grandson of John Hicks, one of the first three men killed at the battle of Legington. He was born in Schodack, N. Y., in 1818 and entered the dry goods business in 1845. After his retirement from business Mr. Merchant spent much of his time in religious and charitable work. He CHICAGO OPERA BOSS time in religious and charitable work, He was senior deacon of Calvary Baptist Church, in West Fifty-seventh street, He is survived by three daughters, Miss Louise Merchant, Mrs. W. W. Young and Mrs. Jessie M. Dunn.

Jacob Sharpe Wetmore.

Jacob Sharpe Wetmore dled at his home Engagement.

STOTESBURY HAS PLANS

STOTESBURY HAS PLANS

Oscar Hammerstein Says

May Se'nd His Company to Philadelphia.

Jacob Sharpe Wetmore died at his home in Englewood, yesterday at the age of $3. Mr. Wetmore, who was born in New York, was a pioneer in developing Englewood, where he had made his home since 1862. He was Mayor at one time. Until five years ago, when he retired from active business, he was in real estate in New York. He was employed by the William Walter Phelps estate with offices at 100 Broadway and previously had been a member of Richard Irvin & Co., bańkiers and commission merchants. Mr. Wetmore is survived by his wife, Mary L., two daughters, Eliza Stanley and Susan L., and a son, Leonard L. Wetmore.

Thomas Carter.

Thomas Carter, 58 years old, a comedian, died yesterday at his home, 353 East Thirty-first street. Mr. Carter was born in this city and at 14 got work in Tony Pastor's theatre in Fourteenth street. He Opera Company next season.

A dable message from London severed the last thread that held Mr. Campanini to his engagements at Covent Garden. "Peck's Bad Boy." He lived with an day advised the Chicago management of his wish to continue the arrangement between Chicago and Philadelphia for grand opera for ten weeks in Philadelphia for phila next winter.

George G. Keith.

St. Louis, May 2.—Capt. George G. Keith, a famous river navigator, died today, aged 77. He was the originator of the first mocking bird whistle and steam phila next winter. active riverman here, having been sixty years in the business.

Patrick Kennedy.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., May 2.—Patrick Ken-nedy, 85 years old, father of Bishop Thomas

Edward McMahon. PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Edward Mc-Mahon, 68 years old, a brother of the late David McMahon, contractor, was stricken with heart, disease at his home to-day and died before a physician could reach him. Three sons and three daughters survive.

HATBORO, Pa., May 2.—Isaac Warner, Jr., 91 years, one of the original direc-tors of the Hatboro National Bank, is dead. Mr. Warner was at one time owner and occupant of Cedarcroft, the former home of Bayard Taylor. Two sons survive Dr. Arthur Ames Bliss. Andreas Dippel, retiring director of Philadelphia, May 2.—Dr. Arthur the Chicago Opera Company, is not Ames Bliss, 54 years old, for more than twenty years laryngologist at the German vives him.

Isaac Warner, Jr.

Philip Storm. CATASAUGUA, Pa. May 2.—Philip Storm. 84 years old, retired ironmaster and the oldest health officer in the State, died at his home here to-day.

"The Idle Rich" Stops Playing. "The Passing of the Idle Rich," which was produced at the Garden Theatre on Thursday night, closed yesterday after the usual in theatrical circles." He was told that Oscar Hammerstein had said that Mr. Campanini liked his own notions to supersede everything. Mr. Dippel said: "Well," and shrugged his choulders.

Was produced at the Campania liked his single performance. Mrs. Margaret Townsend Tagliapletra, who wrote the piece from the book of Frederick Townsend Martin, was confined to her room at her home, 343 West Thirty-fourth street, last right from nervous breakdown. Her hus-

DIED.

Brower. Funeral services from the First Preshy terian Church, Peekskill, N. Y., on Tuesday, May 6, at 2 P. M. BRUSH .- On April 30, in her 88th year,

Elizabeth Cass Brush, widow of Edmund A. Brush, at the residence of Theodors Frelinghuysen, Tuxedo Park, N. Y. Funeral services in Christ Church, Detroit, BURT.-Died Friday, May 2, 1913, Frederick W. Burt, for thirty-eight years a trusted and faithful employee of Lewis & Con ger, who sorrowfully here record their tegrity and loyalty. ALEB.—At Eatontown, N. J., May 2, 1913, after a brief illness, Mrs. G. N. Caleb. Funeral at Utica, N. Y., Monday, May 5, at 11 A. M. Utica and Chicago papers please copy.

appreciation of his long service, his in-

ARTER.—Suddenly, from pneumonia, on Thursday, May 1, 1913, at his residence. Joseph James Carter, husband of Mary Hartwell Carter. Funeral services at his late residence, 43 South Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J., on Saturday at 3 P. M. Carriages in waiting to meet 2 P. M. train from New York via Central Railroad and 2,95 P. M. train via Pennsylvania Railroad Incineration at Rose Hill Crematory at convenience of family. It is kindly requested that no flowers be sent. CARTER -Thomas, aged 58.

Services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH," 241 West Twenty-third street (Frank E.

West Twenty-third street (Frank E. Campbell Bidg.). Time funeral later. Automobile cortege. KINNICUTT .- Dr. Francis P., suddenly on

Notice of funeral hereafter. LEOSER -- On Thursday, May 1, 1913, Charles McKnight Leoser, in his 43d year, Services at his late residence, 421 Tillou road, South Orange, N. J., on Sunday, May 4, at 3:30 P. M. Carriages will be in waiting upon arrival of Lackawanna train leaving Hoboken at, 2:15 P. M. arriving South Orange at 2:55 P. M.

OCKMAN —At Windham. Conn., April 20, in the 74th year of her age, Mary Tain-tor Abbe, wife of the late Jacob K. Lockman and daughter of the late George Abbe and Charlotte Hackstaff. Funeral services will be held at W Conn., on Saturday morning. May 3. In terment at Woodlawn Cemetery, Satur day afternoon. Special train for relaleave Grand Central Depot Saturday, :30 P. M. Those desiring to send flow ers may send them to the residen. Mrs. John T. Lockman. 140 Seventy-third street. St. Paul. Minb. papers please copy. OSER.—On Friday, May 2, 1913, at her residence, 1360 Ocean Parkway, Brook-

n. New York, Caroline Hexamer, wife Charles G. Moser, in her sixty-seventh Funeral private. POWERS.—At Monmouth Beach, N. J., on Thursday, May 1, the Rev. Patrick J. Powers, rector of the Church of the Precious Blood.

Funeral from his church on Saturday morning, May 3, at 10:30 o'clock. VETMORE-At his late residence, Englevood. N. J., on Friday, May 2, 1918. L. Wetmore, in his eighty-third year.

Funeral services at his residence, Sunday,

UNDERTAKERS.

AMBULANCES (ARROW) MIRE FRANK E. CAMPBELL, Tal. 1.25